3. Summary of Accomplishments:

Hi, My name is Douglas Rae Fellows. I had a private tour of the United States White House in 1968. I used my first computer in 1969. I wrote Fortran at the University of Maryland, College Park where I majored in Chemistry, my favorites class was Calculus, and I received an A for an architectural drawing I did of the United States Capitol in 1975. For the next 17 years I owned my own business, started teaching myself to become a full stack developer and refurbished computers for donation to a school for children in Croatia. From 1992 to 2007 I ushered at the National Presbyterian Church, Washington, DC, whose members / attendees included President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, Warren E. Burger, whose funeral service I ushered, Senator John Glenn, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, my parents Dr. and Mrs. J. Beverly Fellows, who are interred there, and my wife Colleen Flynn to name just a few.

Supporting Documentation

THE LAW (39 U.S. CODE 1002) PROHIBITS POLITICAL AND CERTAIN OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS FOR APPOINTMENTS, PROMOTIONS, ASSIGNMENTS, TRANSFERS, OR DESIGNATIONS OF PERSONS IN THE POSTAL SERVICE. Statements relating solely to character and residence are permitted, but every other kind of statement or recommendation is prohibited unless it either is requested by the Postal Service and consists solely of an evaluation of the work performance, ability, aptitude, and general qualifications of an individual or is requested by a government representative investigating the individual's loyalty, suitability, and character. Anyone who requests or solicits a prohibited statement or recommendation is subject to disqualification from the Postal Service and anyone in the Postal Service who accepts such a statement may be suspended or removed from office.

Privacy Act Statement: Your information will be used to facilitate communication between the Postal Service and individual employees, including current and former employees, new hires, and applicants to share relevant information and topics about the Postal Service, and to request and gather voluntary feedback. Your information will also be used to provide notification to individuals about training or learning assignments and requirements, both prior to and after effective date of employment or placement. Collection is authorized by 39 U.S.C. 401, 310, 1001, 1005, and 1206. Supplying your information is voluntary, but if not provided, we may not be able to send information and messaging to you, request your feedback, and provide you with notification about training or learning assignments and requirements.

We do not disclose your information to third parties without your consent, except to facilitate the transaction, to act on your behalf or request, or as legally required. Authorized disclosures include the following standard routine uses: in relevant legal proceedings; to law enforcement when the Postal Service or requesting agency becomes aware of a violation of law; to a congressional office at your request; to entities or individuals under contract or agreement with the Postal Service; to government agencies and other entities authorized to perform audits; to labor organizations as required by law; to a federal, state, local or foreign government agency when necessary in connection with decisions by the requesting agency or by the Postal Service; to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission when requested; to the Merit Systems Protection Board or Office of the Special Counsel for the purpose of litigation.
